During Years 3 and 4, students will take online courses in general studies and applied theology at Sitting Bull College. Credit earned in these courses may be applied to the Associate of Arts degree. A degree plan will be designed for each student wishing to earn the AA degree. Tuition and some educational resources will be covered by a grant for Years 3 and 4.

The Two Plus Two Program is supported by funding from the Trinity Wall Street Foundation in New York. It was developed through a partnership between Bexley Seabury Seminary, Sitting Bull College, and the Indigenous Ministry Department for The Episcopal Church.
